

Tax Dispute Resolution Process

Days means business days but excludes all days between 16 December of a year and 15 January of the following year. This is just a guide. Users are advised to consult the rules as neither Tax Disputes nor any of its staff, partners or directors will be liable for any loss caused as a result of using this guide.